Confesses To Assumed Name

ST. LOUIS, Mo. UPI — "Every time I saw my children go to school, I'd think—that's not my name."

"I wanted to go to church but I couldn't because every time I signed my name, I was living a lie."

And so last week, Clyde G. Swanson, 50, a respected war veteran in suburban St. Charles, called his wife and their seven children together for a family conference.

He told them his real name was George C. Hutchinson. He told them that back in November, 1937, he had escaped from an Illinois prison farm. He was serving a one year to life sentence for armed robbery.

Crashes Plane To Kill Self

SHAWNEE, Okla. UPI — Robert Lawson, 43, returned to his alma mater Tuesday to die in a bizarre suicide plan by crashing a rented plane into the administration building while his student son looked on.

"I'm going to build a monument," he radioed shortly before he hedge-hopped across the campus, nosed his Cessna 150 into the wall of Shawnee Hall at Oklahoma Baptist University OBU and died in the flaming wreckage.

Dude Howard, tower operator at the Shawnee Municipal Airport adjacent to the OBU campus, was the first to find out Lawson's reason for the visit.

At 11:40 p.m., Lawson radioed the airport:

"I'm not kidding. Call OBU and evacuate the administration building."

"You're kidding," Howard told him. "Say again."

"I'm not kidding," Lawson called back. "Evacuate the administration building at OBU. I'm going to build a monument."

Then, Lawson asked to talk with airport manager Fred Reese, who had taught him to fly.

Oswald's Mother Hires Attorney

FORT WORTH, UPI — Mrs. Marguerite Oswald, battling to wipe the assassin's brand from her dead son, said Tuesday she had hired New York attorney Mark Lane to represent him before the Warren Commission.

Lane, often involved in civil liberties cases, confirmed he would represent Lee Harvey Oswald's interests and said he had told Chief Justice Earl Warren, head of the commission, he would do so.

At a news conference in her home, Mrs. Oswald also said she had not seen her Russian-born daughter-in-law, Mrs. Marina Oswald, since last Thanksgiving.

Oswald's widow has been in hiding under the protection of Secret Service agents since the assassination of President Kennedy in Dallas Nov. 22.

Mrs. Oswald said she had tried a meeting as late as Monday. She said a Secret Service agent told her that he would try to arrange a telephone conversation with Marina.

Congress Hears Italian Leader

WASHINGTON UPI — Italian President Antonio Segni will address a joint session of Congress today and wind up two days of political talks with President Lyndon B. Johnson after achieving "an absolute identity of views."

Segni's two day official visit here was marred by the worst snow storm the nation's capital had to face in the last six years, but kindled by an immediate and intimate understanding between the two presidents.

A joint communique, which will be issued later today, is expected to confirm the willingness of the two countries to continue their close cooperation and explore all avenues to ease international tension while firmly preserving the Western world's liberty and security.

The communique is expected at 4:00 p.m. EST.

The meeting was scheduled for 10 a.m. EST.

A joint U.S.-Panamanian announcement said that Panama agreed to resume diplomatic relations with the United States and the two countries agreed to begin discussions on their dispute 30 days after diplomatic ties are resumed.

Two Runs Made By City Firemen

City firemen were called to the entrance of the receiving room of the Montgomery Ward Store, on West Walnut Street, at 4:55 Tuesday afternoon.

Firemen reported that a can of highly inflammable liquid had been spilled and the call was a precautionary measure.

There was no fire as a result.

A second run was made by the firemen at 2:45 this morning to the pizza establishment owned by James Headley at 311 Bloomington Street.

A blaze on the kitchen floor was out on arrival, firemen said.

Viet Reds Hit Yank Bomber

SAIGON, South Viet Nam UPI — Two U.S. Air Force pilots and a Vietnamese are feared dead in the crash of their B-26 bomber, which apparently was downed by Communist fire, a U.S. military spokesman said today.

A search began at dawn today for the Vietnamese air force plane's crew 40 miles northwest of Saigon. The plane crashed just before dark Tuesday night and rescue workers could not reach the site because of the darkness and heavy Communist fire in the area.

Hospital Gets Gift Of $1500

The Putnam County Hospital announced the receipt of a $1,500 contribution today from the Nona France Foundation, in the name of the local Ohio and Indiana Stone Company plant.

Contributions to the hospital have been made continuously by the France Foundation since 1951, totalling over $15,000.00.

Through the years, these funds have enabled the hospital to obtain new x-ray therapy equipment, examining room equipment, helped in payment of new construction, and new diagnostic medical equipment.

It is through such gifts and benevolences that enables the hospital to provide up-to-date medical and hospital service at a more rapid rate than it could do otherwise.

Deadline Today On State Order

INDIANAPOLIS UPI — Deadline day arrived today for complying with a state order that each county in Indiana must submit a school reorganization plan, and five of the 92 counties had not done so.

Miss Lucille Camp, secretary for the Indiana State School Reorganization Commission, said the commission has no information indicating the existence of county reorganization committees in Grant, Dubois, Fulton, Howard and Steuben Counties.

Since it is necessary to have county committees before plans can be submitted, officials said there was little chance the five counties could meet the deadline.

BULLETIN!

INDIANAPOLIS UPI — The Indiana High School Athletic Association today suspended Muncie Central from further IHSA competition until next Jan. 1, thus barring the Bearcats from a chance to defend their state basketball championship next month.

PANAMA CITY UPI — Panama agreed early today to resume diplomatic relations with the United States, subject to negotiation of "all existing matters" at issue between the two countries.

Panama broke relations last week for the first time in its 60-year history after fighting erupted in a dispute over the U.S.-controlled Canal Zone.

An agreement reached in talks sponsored by the Inter-American Peace Commission stipulated that negotiations will be initiated 30 days after diplomatic ties are renewed.

The agreement did not refer directly to Panama's demand for revision of the 60-year-old treaty under which the United States operates the Panama Canal. The United States was understood to have objected to such a reference.

But Panama accepted the agreement, considering it to imply that the canal will be discussed since that is the main outstanding issue.

"The Inter-American Peace Commission has invited the parties the United States and Panama to reestablish diplomatic relations as quickly as possible," a brief communique said in part.

"The parties have agreed to accept this invitation and, as a consequence thereof, have agreed to begin formal negotiations which will be initiated 30 days after diplomatic relations are reestablished by means of representatives who will have sufficient power to discuss without limitations all existing matters of any nature which may affect the relations between the United States and Panama."

Smoking Taboo In Texas Town

EASTLAND, Tex. UPI — Imagine a grown man, law abiding in all respects and with no police record, sneaking a smoke behind locked doors and hunted like a common criminal.

It may be like that in Eastland come Feb. 20.

The city council passed an ordinance Monday that provides a $1,000 fine or three years' imprisonment for smoking cigarettes, selling cigarettes or giving away cigarettes with the city limits.

When asked Tuesday if the new ordinance could be enforced, police Chief Ray Laney said "don't ask me—ask the mayor."

Mayor Don Pierson said he did not think the town's six-man force could nab all the smokers in town, but he proposed the Gestapo-like technique of citizen's arrest as a possible answer.

Morgan Everson

Old Gold Stuns Indiana State

Jim Callane hit 10 of 13 shots and Morgan Everson made eight of 11 to whisk DePauw University's Tigers to a stunning 87-71 upset of Indiana State last night in a jubilant Bowman Gymnasium.

Hanging onto the ball like the family's jewels, the Tigers looked for and took only the good shots. They canned 33 of 50, probably the most devastating shooting the 47-year-old gymnasium ever has presided over.

State, which had an 11-3 record entering the affair, shot 400 on 28 of 70. The Sycamores were outrebounded, 40-38.

The two teams were tied seven times in the first 12 minutes. Finally center Bob Hutto put DePauw ahead 25-23 with a tip in. After this the Tigers never trailed and opened up a 43-32 half-time margin.

Using 10 players for the eleventh consecutive game, coach Elmer McCall was so pleased with his substitutes that once starters Dick Putt, Bob Hutto and Callane came out they never got back in.

All three came out with foul troubles. Putt left the action with 2:25 to play in the half; Hutto bowed out midway through the second half; and Callane was pulled with 9:11 to play to conserve him for a final fling that never became necessary.

Their subs, Dean Rush, Stan Bahler and Skip Collins, not only kept the Sycamores down from 10-18 points during the last 13½ minutes, but they also accounted for 19 points.

In the first half, when DePauw started flexing its muscles, the Tigers hit 14 of 24 shots, including five in a row by Callane and four straight by Everson. This twosome each collected 23 points in the game.

WASHINGTON UPI — Chairman Edwin E. Willis, D-La., of the House Committee on Un-American Activities Tuesday denounced the "Emergency Committee For Disaster Relief To Cuba" as a "fraud and a hoax."

West opened the deuce of hearts, and South took the finesse because it was there. East won with the king of hearts and naturally shifted to the queen of spades.

It's cruel to go on with the story. East easily set up his spades and got in with the king of diamonds in time to cash them. East took a heart, a diamond and three spades, defeating the contract.

"Nice work," North congratulated his partner. "But I once knew a man in Singapore who could have gone down two."

REFUSE FINESSE

Pay no attention to North's remark. With luck, you may never meet that man in Singapore. Just refuse the heart finesse at the first trick, and your game contract is safe.

Put up the ace of hearts, get to your hand with the ace of clubs, and lead the nine of diamonds for a finesse. Even if the finesse loses, you are sure of five diamonds, three clubs, and two other aces.

When a finesse stares you in the face, learn to stare right back while you consider both possibilities. Surprisingly often it will pay you to refuse the finesse.

Club Met With Mrs. Lowell Barr

The Double Friendship Home Economics Club met January 6, 1964 at the home of Mrs. Lowell Barr. The meeting was opened by the new president, Mrs. Harley Sutherland; Mrs. Lowell Barr led the group in the song of the month. Mrs. William Henson led the club in the Home Economics creed. Roll call was answered by a favorite lesson. There were nine members and three children present.

The lesson "Our trip to Canada" was given by Mrs. Harley Sutherland. The lesson was short but interesting. She showed slides of her husband who sheared sheep in a contest in Canada.

During the business session, the secretary's report was read and approved. The treasurer read her report and collected dues and the monthly penny collection. Mrs. Arthur Scott reported she went to a session for safety leaders. A motion was made, seconded and passed to set the price of secret sister gifts at one dollar. We discussed our program books for 1964. After considering having a Fair exhibit this year, we decided we wouldn't. We talked about our tour in September and tried to get some ideas about where to go.

In closing the business session, Mrs. Arthur Scott led the club in the club prayer.

The social and visiting period consisted of Mrs. William Henson winning the cake auction. Jane Weist led the ladies in playing games.

The hostess served delicious refreshments and the meeting was dismissed.

The next meeting will be at Mrs. Harley Sutherland's.

Confection Dessert... HONEY PRUNE RING

Honey Prune Ring can't miss. And neither can you when you offer it.

The Ring is crisp, lightly chewy and taffy-like, a combination of toasted oat cereal and rich, winy prunes in clear candy syrup. You make the Honey Ring ahead of time and chill. At serving time, pile the center dramatically high with ice cream balls and fragrant sherried prunes. And there you are with an unabashed Sweet Delectable to delight all lovers of desserts.

6 cups toasted oat cereal
1 cup plumped* pitted prunes, chopped
1/2 cup honey
1/2 cup light brown sugar
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons butter or margarine

*Sherried prunes

Use a large, well greased bowl and into it measure cereal and prunes. In a saucepan combine honey, sugar and salt; bring to a boil. Stir until sugar dissolves, then cook to 245 degrees, or until a small amount of syrup forms a firm ball in cold water. Remove from heat and stir in butter or margarine. Pour at once over cereal and prunes, stirring until mixture is coated evenly. Press into well-buttered 2 quart ring mold. Chill at least an hour. Unmold. Fill center with ice cream and Sherried Prunes. To serve, slice ring with a sharp knife.

1 1/2 cups good sherry
1/2 cup sugar
2 slices lemon, studded with a few cloves
1 pound prunes, plumped* and pitted
Mix and heat sherry, sugar and lemon slices. Pour at once over prunes, cover and let stand until cool. Chill for 1 hour. Mix with balls of vanilla ice cream and/or lemon sherbet in center of cereal ring.

*The easiest way to plump prunes is to cover with water and soak overnight.

Fashion Tips... by Celeste Parr

'Teens Should Know Their Fashion Types

Finding your fashion type, accepting it, and then dressing to suit it can be tougher than a math exam, but it is rewarding. Do you accept the challenge?

First, find a full length mirror and take a good honest look at yourself, head to toe. If you're short, stop wishing you were tall and make up your mind to investigate all the wonderful new fashions that are being styled for petites only.

If you're the well-scrubbed type, stop wishing you were a femme fatale and start wearing the clear bright colors that will give your fresh complexion more sparkle than the sophisticate's rhinestone necklace.

Got the idea? Every girl can be beautiful, and beautifully dressed, if she pours her energies into making the most of what she is.

Here are some fashion types and a guide to the kind of clothes that complement their personalities. If you fit into more than one category, adopt your best look from each one.

Girl-next-door (Hayley Mills): simple, classic styles, perhaps boy-coats or shirtwaist dresses; sweet, pretty gingham, small checks, dainty prints; blouses and skirts in fresh colors.

Prize (Connie Stevens): fun clothes like amusing printed blouses and "Mad" sweaters; touches of whimsy in coiffure and accessories like pixie haircuts, fun hats, gay costume jewelry.

Dreamy, romantic (Lee Remick): lovely, soft colors and fabrics; silks and satins and richly printed cottons or patterned wools; hooded coats or jackets, stoles and exotic scarves; soft colors even in sport clothes, including very feminine swim suits.

Sophisticated (Tuesday Weld): a city girl at heart (even if she lives in a small town!), this Want to know more about fashion and wardrobe planning? Write to Dept. 605, 1710 Broadway, New York 19, N.Y. and ask for the free booklet, "Your Dream Wardrobe".

Conservative and quiet (Doris Day): clothes that are very smart in a quiet way; acceptable fashions in new versions, new fabrics or colors are right, perhaps the slim shirtwaist or semi-fitted sheath with high neck and no sleeves, topped by short jackets in contrasting wool or cotton. Jewelry conservative in size and real-looking.

Can you find yourself? Once you do, be true!

Solon Calls For Complete Study

WASHINGTON UPI — Senate Democratic Whip Hubert Humphrey called today for a comprehensive study of the impact of automation and technology, including a search for programs to cope with effects of possible disarmament.

In a statement prepared for Senate delivery, Humphrey said he was introducing President Johnson's proposal to create a commission on automation, technology and employment.

The Minnesota senator's proposal broadened the administration program to include the impact of defense spending and arms reduction.

"The time has come for a truly comprehensive and in depth study of this critical challenge to our system of democratic government and our system of free enterprise," he said.

High And Low

NEW YORK UPI — The lowest temperature reported to the U. S. Weather Bureau Tuesday, excluding Hawaii and Alaska, was 21 below zero at Lebanon,

Johnsons Host State Dinner

WASHINGTON UPI — A finger-snapping, foot-tapping "hootenanny" highlighted President and Mrs. Johnson's first formal state dinner Tuesday night at the White House.

The dinner, for President Antonio Segni of Italy and his wife, was a blend of the glittering Kennedy style and the homespun Texas touch of the Johnsons.

The 72-year-old Segni, who speaks little English, seemed to enjoy the mixture. He was seen to tap his foot to the strains of "When the Saints Come Marching In" as performed by the new Christy Minstrels group.

The President said Segni "loved it... he just laughed."

The young folk singers shared the White House stage with Metropolitan Opera star Robert Merrill, who sang "Di Provenza II Mar" from Verdi's "La Traviata" and the famous "Largo Al Factotum" Cavatina from Rossini's "The Barber of Seville."

The selections from Italian grand opera were chosen to please the Segnis. The Johnsons also included a number of well-known Americans of Italian descent among the 140 guests invited to the lavish dinner in the executive mansion's state dining room.

Will Reject Bid

NEW YORK UPI — American League club owners Thursday will turn down the bid of Charles O. Finley to transfer his Kansas City Athletics to Louisville, Ky.

"They hope to do it amicably, trusting that their refusal will not result in any law suit which would challenge the constitutionality of the system under which organized baseball has operated since its inception in 1876."

"There isn't a chance that his request for a transfer will be granted," said one of the club owners, who asked not to be named. "I will stake my franchise on one prediction: 'He will receive one vote — his own.'"

Wheat To Russ

NEW YORK UPI — An American flag vessel will carry the first shipment of U.S. wheat to Russia later this month, the Continental Grain Co. said Tuesday.

Loading was scheduled to begin Jan. 26 or 27 on the American Export Isbrandtsen Lines ship "Exilona" at Norfolk, Va. The shipment was one of a series scheduled for this month and February.

MEALTIME MAGIC WITH CANNED CONDENSED SOUP

Today's harried homemaker, wife, mother, chauffeur, club woman, and often times, wage earner, seldom has time for long hours in the kitchen. The successful woman knows, though, how to plan delicious and well balanced meals in minutes.

One of her most reliable aids is canned condensed soup. This hearty, family-favorite casserole takes only 20 minutes — real mealtime magic with canned condensed cream of mushroom soup as the star. Just combine the soup with cooked beef, shredded cheese, and elbow macaroni... top with crumbs... it's bubbling good in 20 minutes.

An individual green bean and onion salad is a tasty accompaniment. For dessert, put a ready-to-bake cherry strudel in the oven with your casserole.

Macaroni Magic

- 1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup
- 3/4 cup milk
- 3/4 cup diced cooked beef
- 3/4 cup finely chopped onion
- 1 cup shredded Cheddar cheese
- 2 cups cooked elbow macaroni (about 1 cup or 4 ounces uncooked)
- 2 tablespoons buttered bread crumbs

In a buttered 1 1/2-quart casserole, blend soup, milk, beef, onion, 3/4 cup cheese and macaroni. Sprinkle remaining cheese and crumbs on top. Bake at 400°F. for 20 minutes or until browned and bubbling. Makes 4 servings.

TOMORROW'S BREADWINNER

WILL USE MORE ELECTRICITY

25 years from now this little guy will use home appliances that deliver comfort and convenience we can only dream of today. His total electric bill will be higher than yours... but it will be, then as now, the biggest bargain in the family budget. Why? Compare today's automatic washers, dryers and kitchen appliances against your mother's old icebox and those rugged winter washdays when clothing froze on the line. Then compare today's price of electricity with 1934's:

UNDER INVESTOR OWNERSHIP, THE AVERAGE PRICE PER KILO-WATT HOUR HAS GONE DOWN 35%, WHILE LIVING COSTS HAVE INCREASED 190%.

Tomorrow's homemaker will "wash" clothes (wool suits and all) clinically clean by electronic sound waves without soap or water. Dishes will be "washed" the same way. Electricity will cook meals in seconds and vacuum the entire house automatically. Tomorrow's electric bills will represent even more comfort and convenience per dollar than anything else in the family budget.

CENTENNIAL SCRAPBOOK

The War for the Union 1861-65 in Pictures

No. 383 The most elegant hotel in the United States a century ago was the Astor House, on Broadway, facing New York's City Hall Park. A quarter century after it was built by John Jacob Astor with some of the money amassed in the Western fur trade, it was still unchallenged seriously as a center of fashionable social conviviality.

The Astor had not been such an innovator as the Tremont House in Boston, where a traveler was enabled to have a room all to himself instead of having to double up with a stranger, or the Irving House in New York, which was the first hostelry to have a private bath in its bridal suite. (Other guests had to go to "bathing rooms" down the hall or in the basement.) But the Astor adopted whatever was deemed comfortable and suitable to its guests.

Hence it was the chosen stopping place for the most distinguished travelers who passed through New York on their way to or from Washington during the war; the place where Farragut was dined and feted as a naval hero before he went back to the River campaign in January 1864; the place to which President Lincoln sent Mrs. Lincoln for a recuperative change of scene when she was distraught and ill over the death of their son and the loss of two of her brothers in battle. Lincoln himself had stopped there in 1860. Other guests had included Andrew Jackson, Sam Houston, Henry Clay, Daniel Webster, Charles Dickens, Jenny Lind, Prince de Joinville.

Baker Hearings To Be Resumed

WASHINGTON UPI—Senate investigators plan to open the books on the tangled finances of former Senate aide Robert G. (Bobby) Baker when they resume their public hearings. L. P. McLendon, special counsel for the Senate Rules Committee, said today tentative plans called for a session next Wednesday devoted to Baker's financial records.

Published reports have indicated that Baker, former secretary to Senate Democrats, had a net worth of up to $2 million before a civil damage suit spotlighted his outside business interests and ultimately led him to quit his $19,500-a-year Senate job.

IF KANSAS CITY'S Charley Finley succeeds in moving his American League Athletics to Louisville, Ky., it'll be the first time since 1899 that this brightest jewel of Bourbonland has been represented in major baseball. That is a long time between mint juleps!

Louisville, incidentally, was a charter member of the National League back in 1876. A pioneer — just like that other big name in Kentucky lore, Dan'l Boone!

In 1877 the league shrank to six clubs and apparently this was too tight a fit for Louisville because by 1878 the town had been squeezed out of big league ball.

The Kentucky metropolis popped up again in major diamond activity in 1882 as a member of the newly-formed American Association. The club was nicknamed "Eclipse" and it almost went into one in 1889 when it lost 111 games to finish a horrendous last.

During that horrible season Louisville tried seven — count 'em — seven different managers. This disproves the old theory there's safety in numbers. Also that seven's a lucky digit.

With the A. A. doing a fold-over Louisville came back to the National in 1892, finishing ninth in a 12-club circuit.

This very mild success proved but a flash in the pan — Louisville dived to 11th in 1893, then wound up 12th and last in 1894, 1895 and 1896. So, it must have been something of a relief to a long-suffering fandom when the town bid goodbye to big league ball come 1899.

IOWA LOST WORLD BECOMES A NEW WORLD OF ADVENTURE!

Well-Planned Kitchen
Is Pride of Hostess

Here's the kind of kitchen that welcomes guests. New electric appliances look sleek and help the hostess make light work of entertaining. Refrigerator-freezer holds company meals prepared in advance as well as everyday family fare.

Today when good friends and relatives come visiting, they usually gather in the kitchen. Servantless, family-style entertaining has sparked the trend to today's well planned kitchens, equipped with attractive time- and work-saving appliances.

Open kitchen-family rooms and kitchen-living room areas form the nucleus of a very pleasant, informal way of life. As every homemaker knows, the food-storage area plays a vital role here, in both appearance and performance.

A new electric refrigerator-freezer, with its built-in look and designer finish, establishes an ideal focal point for any cooking-eating-entertaining center. Improved design of the new units permits flush-to-the-wall fit, either in a corner or snugly between cabinets, and a choice of exterior finishes means that at least one of the new models will blend with your kitchen decor.

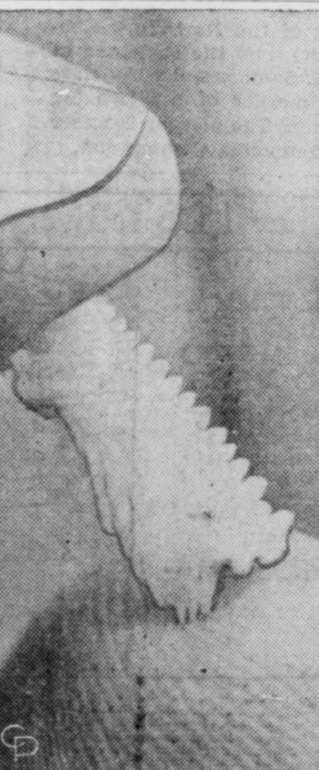

The efficiency of the new units has been improved just as much as their appearance. They store more food, both fresh and frozen, and keep it at top quality longer. And it's easier to put the food away and to get at it. Swing-out shelves in some models, for instance, virtually hand out the canapes, dips and relishes, or even full guest meals prepared in advance.

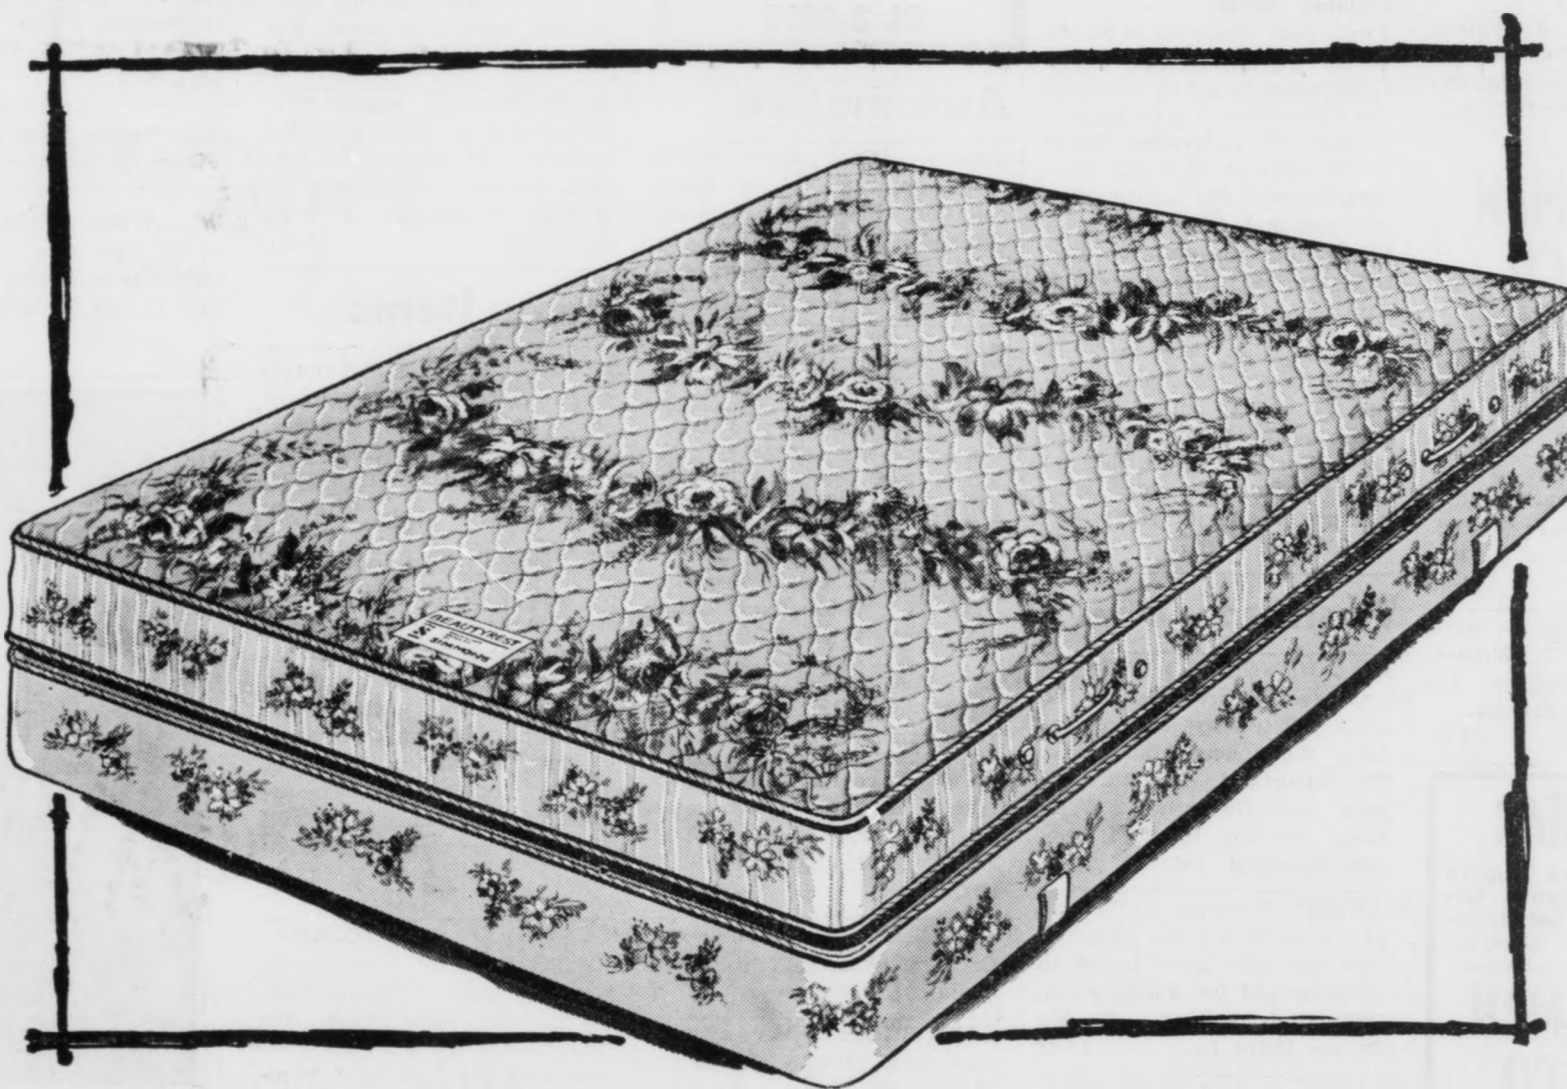

The host preparing drinks will never be caught short of ice cubes. Some refrigerator-freezers have self-filling ice trays; others have convenient flip-over trays that drop cubes into a generous-sized storage bin. Some of these, too, can be refilled right in the freezer.

Many of the new, thinner-walled units have almost twice the food storage capacity of previous models, yet they fit into the same kitchen floor space, giving the hostess ample room for food, without stealing kitchen work and play area.
